'LOVE MISSIVE' BRICKS LEAD TO JAIL

Heaviest Rum Sentence
Pittsford, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Three years in State prison and a fine of $1,000 were given Charles Herrick, found guilty of three violations of the liquor law. The sentence was the heaviest for prohibition violation ever imposed in this State.

LAW EVADED ON SHELLFISH, IT IS CHARGED

New Bedford Clams and Oysters Declared to Be Polluted

That clams are taken and sold from the beach at Clark's Cove and the Anacostia river, which are the polluted districts around New Bedford, is admitted by the Massachusetts Fish and Game Commission.

When shellfish are taken from these restricted beds it is the law that they should be left in clear water for thirty days. B. C. Bourne, chief warden of the Fish and Game Commission, says that this is not done, however.

A contempt program of sale intended to make money and participate in the violation of the law will be broken by the State.

4 FACE TRIAL IN BROCKTON ARSON PLOT

Alleged Firebug 'Ring' Shows Record of 17 Arrests

Made Thus Far

Brockton, Jan. 22.—The district court trial of four more alleged members of the "Brockton arson ring" was resumed in court today, with Judge William F. Tracy as the principal witness.

So far, seventeen arrests have been made in connection with the alleged ring, and a majority of those have already been heard over for the Grand Jury.

The four now on trial are Daniel L. Sullivan, John M. Mearns and Lawrence J. Mearns. The latter two have already been held for the Grand Jury on other charges, along with the first two.

HOW O'DWYER HURLED BRICKS

Standing on the roof of his divorced wife's home, No. 523 Columbus avenue, John O'Dwyer, taxi chauffeur, would wait until the woman's silhouette showed at the window and then would throw a brick. Often the missile went wild, but sometimes they would hit the mark and go crashing through the glass. On one occasion his aim was so accurate that the brick landed in the lap of a woman sitting in his car. At another time he crashed in the dining room window. In the Municipal Court O'Dwyer was given one month in the House of Correction to teach matters over.

Taxi Chauffeur Gets Month's Sentence for Throwing Missiles at Former Wife
Bricks, as love missiles, sent crashing through his former wife's dining room window got John O'Dwyer into a jam with the law and a one-month rest.

Convey, Ohio.—"During the Change of Life I was weak and run-down and could hardly do my work. By reading your advertisement I found out about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried it and it has straightened me out right and made me feel like a new woman. By the time I had taken eight bottles I was well and could do my housework on the farm without trouble. I recommended it to my daughter-in-law after her second baby was born and it did her a wonderful lot of good. I told her to try it and if it didn't help her I would pay for it, and before she had taken one bottle she said to me, 'You won't have to pay for it. It is helping me wonderfully.' And she took three bottles of it. You can see my testimonial of you with 'M. M. ELIAS, ACKERMAN, Convey, Ohio.' Consider carefully Mrs. Ackerman's letter. Her experience ought to help you. Bill Fiske's Busted $155 Bugle Has Congress Going

Washington, Jan. 22.—No claim to the small to be overlooked by the Government.

Witness the case of Bill Fiske, the bugler. Bill put in a claim for damages to his trumpet a few years ago, and now Congress is asked to make good the damage done. As sent to the House by the General Accounting office, the claim reads:

"Bill Fiske's bugle—$155. And in due time Bill will get his money and be able to blow his bugle again."

WHO WANTS TO CLAIM THIS MOONSHINE?

Everybody Passes Buck and Chelsea Jury Is Becoming Discouraged

The ownership of 85 gallons of moonshine found in a shed at No. 11 Yale street, Chelsea, is just what a jury in the United States District Court.

Myer Brown, Chelsea expressman, charged with being the owner of the liquor, denies vigorously that he ever had anything to do with it, although he rented the shed from Mrs. Richard Sax, owner of the property.

In turn, Brown's attorneys advised Mrs. Sax of being the owner of the liquor. They called government prohibition agents to prove that when the raiders visited the place, they detected odors of distilling operations coming from the Sax home.

Mrs. Sax, on the stand vigorously denied ever having made moonshine in her home.

Some time ago she was acquitted on a liquor charge.

LETTERS HOLD UP M'CLINTOCK INQUEST

New Line of Inquiry Is Started as the Result of Notes Bared by Nurse

Chelsea, Jan. 22.—A new line of inquiry was started today in the case of the letters which Harry Olson, Chief Justice of the Municipal Court, said were written by William D. Shepherd, chief clerk of William D. McClintock, who was shot last month.

In one of the letters written last September, Shepherd said he had "just gone broke." Also tending to support the theory that McClintock died from natural causes.

McClintock's will, leaving the bulk of his $2,000,000 estate to his wife, was made last April after he became ill. He died last month in the Chelsea home of typhoid fever, according to pathologists.

Miss Gilling said she met Shepherd several years ago when he was brought to a hospital, where she was supervisor for a slight operation by Dr. Oscar Olson, brother of Judge Olson. Since then, she said, Shepherd had written her many letters.

SULGRAVE GROUP CALLS OFF DINNER TO SMIDDY

New York, Jan. 22.—The George Washington Sulgrave Institution, an organization active in fostering unity between the United States and the British Empire, canceled arrangements for a reception and dinner on January 23, at which the guest of honor was to have been Professor Timothy A. Smiddy, first minister plenipotentiary in the United States from the Irish Free State. John A. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Sulgrave Institution, admitted that the cause for the cancellation was the result of Professor Smiddy's his earlier ascent to the proffered honor.

Laborer Finds Pearl Necklace and Tries to Pawn It

New York, Jan. 22.—A $20,000 necklace, consisting of seventy-two pearls with a diamond and platinum clasp, was found by a laborer, who, on January 23, at which the guest of honor was to have been Professor Timothy A. Smiddy, first minister plenipotentiary in the United States from the Irish Free State. John A. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Sulgrave Institution, admitted that the cause for the cancellation was the result of Professor Smiddy's his earlier ascent to the proffered honor.

CATHOLIC CHURCH TO RAISE FUND OF $5,000,000

New York, Jan. 22.—A grant to raise $5,000,000 for the Roman Catholic Church in the United States has just been announced by the Catholic Church Extension Society as one of the activities of that organization in the program of the church for the commemoration of Holy Year.

CORSET POLICEMAN SUED BY WIFE

MRS. JOHN E. GREENE

John E. Greene, twenty-seven-year-old Bean Heumal of the Newton Police Department, wore corsets on account of stomach trouble, and not to improve his appearance in a uniform.

The fact was brought out in the suit of his wife, Mrs. John E. Greene, who, in Middlesex Superior Court, is seeking divorce on grounds of cruelty and adultery.

The policeman on the stand admitted in conversation that his wife brought him home a pair of corsets one night, for which she said she paid $15.

"I wore them for three months," the officer testified. "They were for stomach trouble, but I could not wear them."

The wife, on the other hand, testified she was never rebuffed. The policeman said his wife threw dishes and household effects at his head, while she also threw a part of

At the same time, when the price of a stock goes up, the price of the call option goes up, too. So, if you own a call option, you are not going to exercise it unless the stock price is higher than the strike price. In other words, you are not going to exercise it unless the stock price is higher than the price you paid for the option. This is why call options are called "call" options. They are called "call" options because they give you the right to "call" the stock, or to buy it, at a price that is higher than the price you paid for the option.

TOO SILLY FOR WORDS - By Charlie

John Jones began life as a newsboy. He was a miserable failure. He then tried clerking in a store, but was too dumb for that. We next find him in a tobacco emporium, where he lasted a week. He went into business for himself as a wool merchant, and shortly after appeared in the bankruptcy court. He studied law for ten years before being convinced that he could not pass the bar exams. He wanted to be a chauffeur, but was unable to get a license. At last, the poorhouse loomed just around the corner. But he wrote the story of his life for a success magazine, and lived prosperously and happily ever after.

ETIQUETTE
The diner in the picture, about to lift the roll from the waiter's fork, evidently isn't accustomed to the usages of good society. Were he an habitue of popular cafes, he would know that he never would get a waiter to do good form to leave the human rule alone, so that another customer may be charged for their bringing your own roll. You will find it.

FABLE
There was a lawyer who would never take a divorce case, because he didn't think it ethical. The legislators who went to investigate Harvard must have been against Yale too.

ODD JOBS
A porcupine using a mowing iron. Giving a tiger a mousetrap. Making potatoes with a hammer. Selling cold drinks to Eskimos. Using your wife's embroidery scissors for a cash register. Giving a small baby a pair of high top shoes. Taking out a grandfather's tooth. Keeping your smoking tobacco in a sieve.

TOOTHACHE
The most painful toothache quickly ends when you take one or two Anti-Kamnia Tablets. Also ready relief for neuritis, headache, sciatica, neuritis, rheumatism, grippe, influenza, nervousness. Breaks up colds, fevers and stops women's pains. Sold every day for 34 years by druggists everywhere. 25 millions used annually. The original pain reliever, Anti-Kamnia, has AK on every tablet.

Apple Sauce
My husband doesn't mind getting his own breakfast, a bill. My wife never even wants to.

OYSTERS IN SEASON
A college chess leader drinking root beer. A small playing a game of chess. Dipping "lady fingers" in a finger bowl. A young man in balloon pants riding a balloon tire. Diving light housekeeping near an electric light plant. A fireman's old flame. A cross-eyed man using a cork screw. Making a payroll in a bakery company. Holding a bathing beauty contest on a Saturday night. On the tacked on to the groom's coat tails at his wedding: "Choose your nearest exit. Run; don't walk."

SOME will give you treasure, some will give you pain, some will give you sorrow, some will give you joy. Some will give you treasure, some will give you pain, some will give you sorrow, some will give you joy.

BEDTIME STORY

By Foxy Grandpa
HAVE you ever noticed that when a man likes to fish, he is never alone? He is always with a good fish. He is always with a good fish. He is always with a good fish.

WORDS OF WISE MEN

Mankind is everywhere the same. Patience costs nothing and gains everything. Nothing is so real as the tongue wagging. The tongue is always right when it comes to anything about nature. It is who under-values himself is justly under-valued by others.

DIFFERENT REASONS FOR A LAXATIVE

Moore Joyce
Walter, don't you know that the only kind for test? You know I've met here once or twice. You know I've met here once or twice. You know I've met here once or twice.

APPLE SAUCE

Writing on a convenient card a list of all the things you want to do. Buying a horse for a pair of rubbers. Giving a husband a set of poker chips. Taking dry toast on a desert trip. Warming a shoe shining parlor in a swamp. Taking a walk in work to an appetite the day before pay day.

THE CLEVER LITTLE WATER SPIDER

By Foxy Grandpa
We were all eyes at once and in a very few moments we did see what the spider was talking about. That little raised in always right when it comes to anything about nature. It is who under-values himself is justly under-valued by others.
